(c) Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) Disclosures (Experts). Disclosure of experts shall proceed according to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) except that:

(1) The disclosure of experts and expert reports shall occur on August 2, 2011, which is 60 days before the discovery cut-off date;

and

15 1. In the event that any Party (the "Discloser") produces material or documents 16 without intending to waive a claim of privilege or confidentiality, the Discloser does not waive 17 any claim of privilege or confidentiality if, within a reasonable amount of time after the 18 Discloser actually discovers that such material or documents were produced, the Discloser 19 notifies all other Parties (the "Recipient(s)") of the inadvertent disclosure of privileged or 20 confidential items, identifying the material or documents produced and stating the privilege or 21 confidentiality provision asserted. Mere failure to diligently screen documents before producing

24 items in accordance with this Claw Back Agreement, the Recipient(s) must return the specified 25 material or documents and any copies within ten days of the notification. The Recipient(s) must 26 further permanently destroy any electronic copies of such specified material or documents and

3. In the event that the Recipient(s) contends the documents are not subject to privilege or confidentiality as asserted by the Discloser in accordance with this Claw Back Agreement, the Recipient(s) may, following the return and destruction described in Paragraph 2 of this Agreement, challenge the privilege claim through a Motion to Compel or other pleading with the District Court in which the Litigation is currently pending. The Parties agree that any review of items by the judge shall be an in camera review.

4. Should the Recipient(s) not challenge the Discloser's claim of privilege or confidentiality, or should the presiding judge determine that the documents are in fact subject to privilege or confidentiality, the documents, or information contained therein or derived therefrom, may not be used in the Litigation or against the Discloser in any future litigation or arbitration brought by the Recipient(s).

5. Nothing contained within this Claw Back Agreement shall be deemed to waive any objection that any Party may wish to assert under applicable state or federal law.
